Report on Guest Lecture (Meditation and Study)

Guest lecture on the topic "Meditation and Study" was conducted by Mr. Jahagirdar (HR Manager at ADF Sinner, Nasik) on 30th Aug, 2016. He explained the tricks on how to study under pressure.

He elaborate how Meditation can give you a sense of calm, peace and balance that can benefit both your emotional well-being and your overall health. And these benefits don't end when your meditation session ends. Meditation can help carry you more calmly through your day and may help you manage symptoms of certain medical conditions.

He has highlighted the importance of meditation to tackle the tension and stress arising from the situations. The student has taken active participation in discussion with the speaker.

Date : 21st June 2017.
Venue : Seminar Hall.
Time : 7.00 AM to 8.00 AM
Coordinator : Prof. Nilesh P. Awari.

Summary of the Program

Since its inception in the year 2015, June 21st is celebrated as The International Day of Yoga all over the world. In that connection has celebrated the 3rd International Yoga Day on 21st June 2017. This idea was proposed by our Prime Minister, Mr. Narendra Modi. He said, "Yoga is an invaluable gift of India's ancient tradition. It embodies unity of mind and body; thought and action; restraint and fulfillment; harmony between man and nature; a holistic approach to health and well-being. It is not about exercise but to discover the sense of oneness with you, the world and the nature. By changing our lifestyle and creating consciousness, it can help in well-being."

International Yoga Day was celebrated by the students and teachers at GIOM with great enthusiasm. Students and faculties demonstrated various asanas followed by Omkar chanting. Warm up exercises were taken and all the students performed sitting and standing asanas, importance of these were explained simultaneously. The celebration concluded with synchronized recitation of shlokas and speech by our Director. He encouraged students to practice regular yoga to remain fit and improve concentration.

Regular practice of yoga will surely help our students achieve a better life, physically, mentally and spiritually as well.

D.O.No.F.14-13/2015(CPP-II) 7th June, 2019

Subject: Celebration of International Day of Yoga.

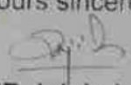

Respected Madam/Sir,

This is in continuation of my earlier letter of even number dated 20th March, 2019 regarding celebration of International Day of Yoga (IDY), 2019 which is to be celebrated on 21st June, 2019. It is believed that your esteemed university would have planned events / activities for successful observance of International Day of Yoga. The Ministry of Human Resource Development vide its letter no. 304/2019-U.5(pt.) dated 7th March, 2019 has forwarded the Common Yoga Protocol 2019 received from Ministry of AYUSH which is available at <http://www.ayush.gov.in/event/common-yoga-protocol-2017> for your ready reference.

The central event of IDY, as in the previous years, shall be the Mass Yoga Demonstration based on Common Yoga Protocol (CYP). The objective of this exercise is to make all participants aware of the immense rewards that the pursuit of yoga can bring to an individual, and inspire them to continue the practice of Yoga beyond the Yoga Day.

You are, therefore, requested to organize a Mass Yoga Demonstration based on CYP on 21st June, 2019 from 07:00 AM to 08:00 AM with participation of staff, teachers and students and also upload an action plan and the activities/photographs/videos of events conducted in your institution on UGC's University Activity Monitoring Portal (<https://www.ugc.ac.in/uamp/>). Necessary instructions may also be communicated to the colleges/institutes affiliated to your university.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Rajnish Jain)

The Vice-Chancellor of all Universities.

About Session

Business letter writing is an essential skill every MBA professional should possess in order to succeed in his/her job.

There are plenty of communication methods used for business correspondence which include formal communication as well as informal communications through social media platforms. Due to this, it is essential to know about the basic principles for business letter writing.

To develop students' understanding of business letter writing Trinity Institute of management and Research arranged professional guidance session on "Business Letter Writing". English Communication and Language trainer Ms. Sonali Joshi conducted the session and shared following information which every business professional should know

- The business letters should be clear and specific to the topic and the words should not be vague
- Instead of giving general information clarity should be given to the main subject in the email
- Technical jargons must be made into simple language for conveying an idea in business letters

Activity Report

Every individual has his own set of skills and strengths. When the whole team works as one unit, people can always avail opportunities to learn from others. Teamwork can be effective in building great work relationships. By work relationships. We don't mean that people have to be the best of friends. Rather, developing the right frame of mind where you respect and listen to other people's opinions and collaborate positively is what we call a good work relationship.

Guest Speaker Mr. Bharat Mulay explained importance of team work and tips to become a team player to the students. He explained how team work triggers creativity, led to learning, improves work pace, cultivates strong work relations, brings sense of accomplishment, induces accountability etc. He made students understand the tips to become good player such as expressing opinion, use of technology, getting ready to go extra miles etc.

At the end of session Guest Speaker Mr. Bharat Mulay asked participants to make group of 4-5 students and list down shared memories.

Program concluded with thanksgiving speech by Dr. Preeti Sharma.
